

Site Steward Lecture Series 2009-2010

All lectures will be held at the new forest service office located at 11 Forest Lane, approximately 6 miles southwest of Santa Fe, off the intersection of NM 14 and NM 599, directly east of the new Rail Runner Station. Doors open at 5:30. Lectures begin at 6:00. You are welcome to bring a brown bag supper to enjoy before or during the lecture.

Oct. 7 David Kice COMPLETED

David A. Kice has been an FBI Special Agent since 1995. He holds a B.A. in anthropology from The Colorado College and an M.A. in biological anthropology and archaeology from the University of Chicago. He spent 11 field seasons as an archaeologist in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada, Illinois, and Zacatecas, Mexico. His anthropology studies focused on the prehistoric Southwest and human skeletal biology. He served as the Forensic Anthropology Consultant to the Los Angeles, California, Department of Coroner immediately prior to joining the FBI. As an FBI Special Agent he served 11 years in Los Angeles, and has now been in Santa Fe for over three years. His specialization as an FBI Agent includes crime scene investigation and human remains recovery. In the spring of 2009 he was named to the FBI's Art Crime Team as the representative for the Southwest region. His talk in October will cover the nature and organization of the FBI Art Crime Team, a review of applicable cultural property laws, the federal law enforcement approach to such investigations, and .and open discussion will be encouraged.

Nov 4 Larry Baker COMPLETED

Larry is Executive Director of the Salmon Ruins near Bloomfield, NM. He has "extensive experience in conservation and stabilization of prehistoric sites in the Four Corners and is helping with the proposed Gallina Stabilization Project." (Quote from Bill Cella.)

Jan 6 Dave Eck COMPLETED

Information coming.

Feb 3 Kurt Anschuetz

Kurt F. Anschuetz (Ph.D. University of Michigan, 1998) works as a consulting anthropologist and archaeologist out of his home in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The Tewa Basin of north-central New Mexico is the principal landscape of both his archaeological and ethnographic research, which is often conducted in collaboration with residents of the locality's traditional and historic communities. He will be talking about Tewa Landscapes.

March 10 Sam Duwe

Sam Duwe will speak on the Tewa Basin Archaeological Research Project (T-BARP). Sam is a graduate student at the University of Arizona who is working in the Tewa Basin or the area of the Chama River and its confluence with the Rio Grande. He's interested in Tewa origins and has intensively mapped several of the Classic Period ancestral Tewa sites.

April 7 John Pitts

John Pitts of Santa Fe, New Mexico will speak on the San Rock Art of Southern Africa with examples from world-class sites in three countries, the Tsodillo Hills of Botswana, Tweifelfontain in Namibia, and the Drakensberg of South Africa. John spent three decades in the Foreign Service prior to "retiring" to Santa Fe, where he volunteers as a Site Steward with the Santa Fe National Forest, as rock art recorder for the Vecinos de los Rios project and in Arizona with the BLM Sears Point Rock Art Recording Project.